Microzine Jr.™ The Learning Library on a Disk

In this issue:

Going Dotty

Connect the dots to solve challenging puzzles! There are 25 Microzine Jr. puzzles for you to solve, or you may make your own. You can number your dots using even numbers only, odd numbers only, or simply number them sequentially. Print your puzzles and give them to your friends and family to solve. You may copy "Going Dotty" to share with your friends.

Learning Opportunities: Math, sequencing, art & design.

The Great Frankfurter

Uncle Frank is about to put on another magic show, and he needs your help! Which tricks will he perform? The Talking Dime? The Balancing Egg? You choose the tricks, then select the correct costume, props and magic word. If you are a good assistant, the magic show will be a success!

Learning Opportunities: Reading for detail and comprehension, sequencing.

The Balloonatics

Your friends Windy and Gusty are Balloonatics! They fly in a hot-air balloon and have exciting adventures. Join them and fly to a desert or mountain. Meet ghosts and wild horses. All of the decisions are yours in this interactive adventure. Then print your adventure and the funny graphics and assemble them into your very own storybook.

Learning Opportunities: Language arts, computer literacy.

Fuzzy to Focused

There is a very fuzzy picture on your monitor. Can you tell what it is? Move the gauge on the "Fuzzy to Focused" meter to sharpen the focus of the picture. Ask for a hint if you need one. Then type in your guess as to what the picture is. There are 15 fuzzy pictures for you to focus!

Learning Opportunities: Visual discrimination.
